-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. This Office Action is responsive to the amendment filed December 21, 2007. Claims 23-37 are pending.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. Claim 23 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.
4. The term "communicatively" in claim 23 is a relative term which renders the claim indefinite. The term "communicatively" is not defined by the claim, the specification does not provide a standard for ascertaining the requisite degree, and one of ordinary skill in the art would not be reasonably apprised of the scope of the invention. The term, communicatively, does not clearly define the scope. Is the storage device linked or not?
5. The term "operably" in claim 1 is a relative term which renders the claim indefinite. The term "operably" is not defined by the claim, the specification does not provide a standard for ascertaining the requisite degree, and one of ordinary skill in the art would not be reasonably apprised of the scope of the invention. The term, operably, does not clearly define the scope. Is the payment means linked or not linked to the terminal?

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

7. Claims 23-37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by US Patent No. 6226618 to Downs et al. (“Downs”).

Referring to claim 23, Downs discloses a terminal configured to access software from a computer readable storage communicatively linked thereto the software configured to generate an interface offering continued utilization of the software in exchange for payment from the user, the interface providing at least an identity of the software owner, offer parameters and the digital signature of the owner for at least part of the offer, and configured to generate a first message (see col. 18 table, steps 130-135; col. 7, lines 56- 67 - the digital content store offers the digital content which is part of the content SC; the license key allows the user continues use of the content), payment means operably linked to the terminal and configured to receive the first message, display the first message, receive a potential acceptance of the software user, compose a second message requesting payment which includes at least the identity of the user, and of the software owner together with proof of the user acceptance, and configured to transmit the second message (see col. 18, step 136 - the user adds the digital content to his shopping card and submits it), a message and payment processing server (i.e. clearinghouse) configured to receive the second message, verify the existence of the proof of user acceptance, record the payment request with at least the identity of the user and of the software owner and the amount to be paid, credit the owner with the amount to be paid, configured to compose a third message which serves as a payment settlement message, the third message containing at least the identity of the message and payment processing server and a digital signature for proof of payment, and transmitting the third message therefrom (see col. 19, steps 137 & 138; col. 23, lines 56-67; col. 24, lines 1-4 - transaction SC & Offer SC).

Claims 24-35 recite the functional language whereby. These claims have been considered but are given little patentable weight¹ because they fail to add any structural limitations and are thereby regarded as intended use language. Thus, claims 24-35 are rejected on the same rationale as claim 23 above.

Claims 36 and 37 are rejected on the same rationale as claim 23 above.

Conclusion

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event,

¹ See e.g. In re Gulack, 703 F.2d 1381, 217 USPQ 401, 404 (Fed. Cir. 1983)(stating that

however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
